A TERRIBLE DEATH.

CAPTAIN N. T. SNEED IS INSTANTLY KILLED.

A Rapidly Moving Locomotive Strikes His Buggy and He is Dashed to the Earth With Great Force—McLennan County Loses an Honored Citizen.

One of the most distressing accidents that has happened in McLennan county for years was the killing of Captain N. T. Sneed yesterday afternoon. Captain Sneed had been in the city on business and was returning to his home near Hewitt. Not far from home he had to cross the Missouri, Kansas and Texas track. Just as he got near the track he heard a train coming and whipped up his horse intending to cross before the train came but seeing that such at proceeding would be dangerous he stopped his team a short distance from the track. The horses became frightened as they saw the train approaching and endeavored to dash across the track in front of the locomotive. Captain Sneed failed in his endeavor to stop the frightened horses and the buggy was directly on the track when the engine arrived at the crossing. Before he could jump or the engineer could stop the train the buggy was hit by rapidly moving locomotive and completely wrecked. Captain Sneed was thrown a considerable distance. He was instantly killed. His neck, ribs and legs were broken, in fact, there was hardly a whole bone in his body. Friends were not wanting and his mangled remains were soon carried to his home and his son, Mr. A. C. Sneed and many other relatives of this city were notified.

The train which caused the deadly work was the south bound passenger which was flying along at a rate much faster than usual on account of being two hours late. They were trying to make up time. The crew of No. 3 was Conductor Tobin and Engineer Hammon.

Captain Sneed earned his title in active service, he was captain of Company E. Buford's regiment and served in the Trans Mississippi Department in Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas. From its organization he was an honored member of Pat Cleburne Camp. He has been a citizen of Texas for many years coming here when a young man and helping to reclaim the state from the wilderness, fighting the Indians to protect his loved ones. He has many relatives in all parts of the state though most of them live in McLennan, Hill and Limestone counties.

His son, Mr. A. C. Sneed, is a well known and popular merchant of Waco as are also his nephews the Messrs. Hill Bros.

The funeral services took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Fifth Street Methodist church and the interment at Oakwood at 3:30 o'clock. In the funeral services Dr. Bourland, his pastor, took occasion to pay a very high tribute to the dead.

When in 1851 Rev. Joseph Speed, a cousin of Captain Sneed came to the then small settlement of Waco among the congregation who heard that first sermon in a small log hut at which is now the foot of Jackson street was N. T. Sneed. When a church was organized his was the first name enrolled and he has ever since been first to enroll in every good cause.

The eulogy pronounced by Dr. Bourland was splendid indeed, and few of the many who knew Captain Sneed ever knew of his many kind deeds and the many poor that will rise up and call him blessed. He lived up to the injunction "Let not your right hand know what the left hand doeth." The church was filled with an immense throng of sorrowing friends and relatives and the remains were followed to the grave by a long procession.

McLennan county has lost an honored and useful citizen. His friends and relatives have lost one who can never be replaced and the church has lost a staunch supporter and faithful Christian worker.

A THREATENED INJUNCTION.

Restraining the Hobson Line From Crossing the Plaza.

There was a meeting at the city hall this morning of business men doing business on the plaza to object to the Hobson Line laying track across the plaza.

They proposed to sue out an injunction but decided to await the result of the committee appointed by the city council to see if a compromise could be effected by which both lines could use the track on the north side of the plaza.

The outcome will be watched with interest. The Hobson people seemed doomed to opposition and persecution in everything they undertake.

The great ocean steamship "Concord" is now lying at Paducah, Ky. This is the only ocean vessel ever in the Ohio river. The navigation committee of St. Louis guaranteed to return her to the gulf, provided the secretary of war would let her come to that port. After leaving St. Louis and reaching the mouth of the Ohio it was found the water of this river was in such a condition that it was decided to run to Paducah, at which point, as stated above, she is now lying.

A CAUCUS IN DALLAS.

Fixing up a State in the County in the Interest of Hogg.

DALLAS, May 20.—A Hogg caucus was held with closed doors yesterday in the auditorium of the city hall. As the attendants ascended the stairway a News reporter noticed that they were composed of citizens and farmers, affording a presumption in favor of the opinion that the city and the county were in consultation about some heavy matters. Of the residents of Dallas who ascended the stairs there were some who have been closely identified with the labor movement in Dallas for many, many years, and some who were on the other side of the question. Both Senator Kimbrough and Hon. John H. Cochran were present. While the caucus was in session a News reporter knocked at the door and asked if the attending sovereignty wished to have their proceedings reported. The sentinel replied in the negative. While this was transpiring a voice that sounded very much like that of J. C. Patton, was exclaiming, "if we put a senator and representative in the field we will injure Gov. Hogg. The governor has enough to carry in Dallas county without being handicapped by candidates for the legislature." As this remark did not evoke applause it looked as if the caucus by a large majority was committed to the policy of bringing out Hogg candidates for the legislative office. It is also fair to presume from the mixed attendance that the slate included a farmer's representative, a laboring man's representative and a business man's representative. How these conjectures will pan out only time can determine, but they seem to be warranted by the surface indications.

The Only Practical Stereotype Outfit. Its Superior Advantages.

It is simple, practical, cheap, costing, according to size, only from $75 to $150. It can be put anywhere, occupying only the room of an ordinary case stand. Through its various patented labor-saving devices it is thoroughly endorsed by practical printers, giving all kinds of results in casting and blocking, viz: Thin flat plates, patent block plates, type high wooden core blocked or all metal arched. Also, it gives the advantage of casting and blocking at the same operation, exact type high, exact widths and exact lengths on and around the late patented hollow sectional ironcore method, the easiest, the cheapest, quickest and best blocking in the word. Absolutely without labor. The outfit dispenses with dangerous, costly and complicated machinery, and with its Hot Water Flashed Casting Box and Mould-Dryer, it is utterly impossible to injure type, and the very finest results known to plate makers, stereotyping or the art of printing is obtained. Send for descriptive circulars, giving full particulars and hundreds of volunteered testimonials from all parts of this and other countries. M. J. For Sale—A Rare Bargain.

I have a complete set of abstract books of the deed records of the city of Waco and its suburbs, consisting of thirteen large volumes, with ample room to keep the records for twenty years brought down to date. These books I wish to sell and will let them go at a bargain for cash, or I will trade them for real estate in the city of Waco. Not being able to get a suitable man to make out abstracts and keep the books, and being unable to give the necessary time to the books myself, is my reason for wanting to sell. If desired I can furnish desk room and vault room for the books in my office for the purchaser. This is a splendid opportunity for a man to start up a good business. The right kind of a man can get a bargain, not only in these abstract books, but in city real estate. My list of bargains cannot be equalled. Call and see me. Office in Pacific hotel building.
